

“ Building the Ego the Lego way “

Just in: a subtitled video of Trump’s cabinet members’ declarations during an official cabinet meeting. The actual words of the consecutive, male and female (no difference), addressors appear hereafter in exact order of appearance in Times New Roman, bold, italic, size 14 fonts. (apologies are due for using the American spelling of English as in labor and realize...)

- As we approach Labor Day weekend here, this is just such a great opportunity, really to recognize your leadership as a true champion for working people.
- Everyone knows there’s no stronger advocate for hard working American families than you sir.
- Mr. President, it’s pretty great to celebrate Labor Day with a builder who loves labor.
- Mr. President, I invite you to see your big, beautiful face on a banner in front of the Department of Labor, because you are really the transformational president of the American worker.
- The average family and individual that lives in this country is safer than they’ve been in years because of what you’ve done.
- Our country has never been so secure thanks to you.
- You have breathed life back into the profession of law enforcement.
- Your tireless campaign and your relentless messaging made people realize the American Dream isn’t dead. It’s just been smothered. And we’re unsmothering it and setting it loose.
- You have brought us back from the edge. You have the overwhelming mandate from the American people. You’re restoring confidence in government.
- All the industries that have been killed in this country are coming back to life because of you.
- You are going to save the Whales on the East Coast.
- Thank you for saving college football. By the way, we’re all very grateful.

- This is the greatest cabinet working for the greatest president.
- What we are accomplishing now again, wouldn't be possible if not for your leadership.
- God bless your assembly of this team around this table. We're bringing the American dream back.
- I do believe we're in a revolution. 1776 was the first one. 1863 or so with Abraham Lincoln was the second. This is the third with Donald Trump leading the way.
- There's only one thing I wish for. That that Nobel Committee finally gets its act together and realizes that you are the single finest candidate since the Nobel Peace since this noble award was ever talked about to receive their award.

Wow... Really Wow !

Block atop block, building the Ego the Lego way.

*(Reminder: these testimonies were said, with all due confidence, by prime administration persons, in an official cabinet meeting, about a president with a long known record (*))*

Never has such an outspoken, extrovert administration been so out of touch with reality in what is now a very much "in touch" world.

Never has so much shallowness, lunacy, inanity and idiocy been gathered around one single table and expressed at one time in such sycophantic terms, each trying to outdo the other !

At a time when the USA is entering full authoritarian mode, at the very moment when, dropping his earlier insanities (**), a US federal court rules that most of Trump's tariffs are illegal !

No authoritarian, no dictatorship, no totalitarian of any regime, of any junta has or ever will surpass the above load of nonsense... at least not so publicly in a stupid world of "Influencers and Followers".

And as " Mad " magazine once wrote: " This is a Mad Mad Mad World ".

Seriously yours.
